Senior Living.

Simple technology for communities that want to connect

Whether you're looking for deeper connections with residents, improved wellness, greater engagement in activities, or a better understanding of your community we have professional technology solutions that will make it possible.

Our Customer Success team is expert in senior living, they live and breathe it. To help your community get the most benefit from our technology they deliver regular tutorials, hints and tips, documentation and support materials via our TownSquare portal.

We deploy connected content everywhere it is needed, creating engaged communities. Our platform has been successfully used by hundreds of thousands of seniors and trusted by thousands of communities across the globe.

Personal experiences for every user

The individuality of the seniors we serve is one of our favorite things. No two people are the same and neither are their communication styles. Built with usability in mind, sharing information with everyone in your community is easy with our senior living technology.

Why do you win with us?

Content Management

How can you share and manage all your content across your Digital Signage, Community Apps, TV+ and more? The answer: Content Manager, your community engagement mission control center.

Integrations

Our platform integrates with a variety of popular third party systems and products to ensure a more enriched and automated solution for your community. Whether it's FullCount or YouTube; Alexa or WorxHub we've got you covered.

Content Partnerships

We understand that technology is just one part of the picture, once you have the platform you also need content! That's why at Uniguest we have partnered with some brilliant providers such as Alive, Fit & Free, Total Brain Health, Wowzitude and Spiro100 to simplify your community engagement content planning.
